1954

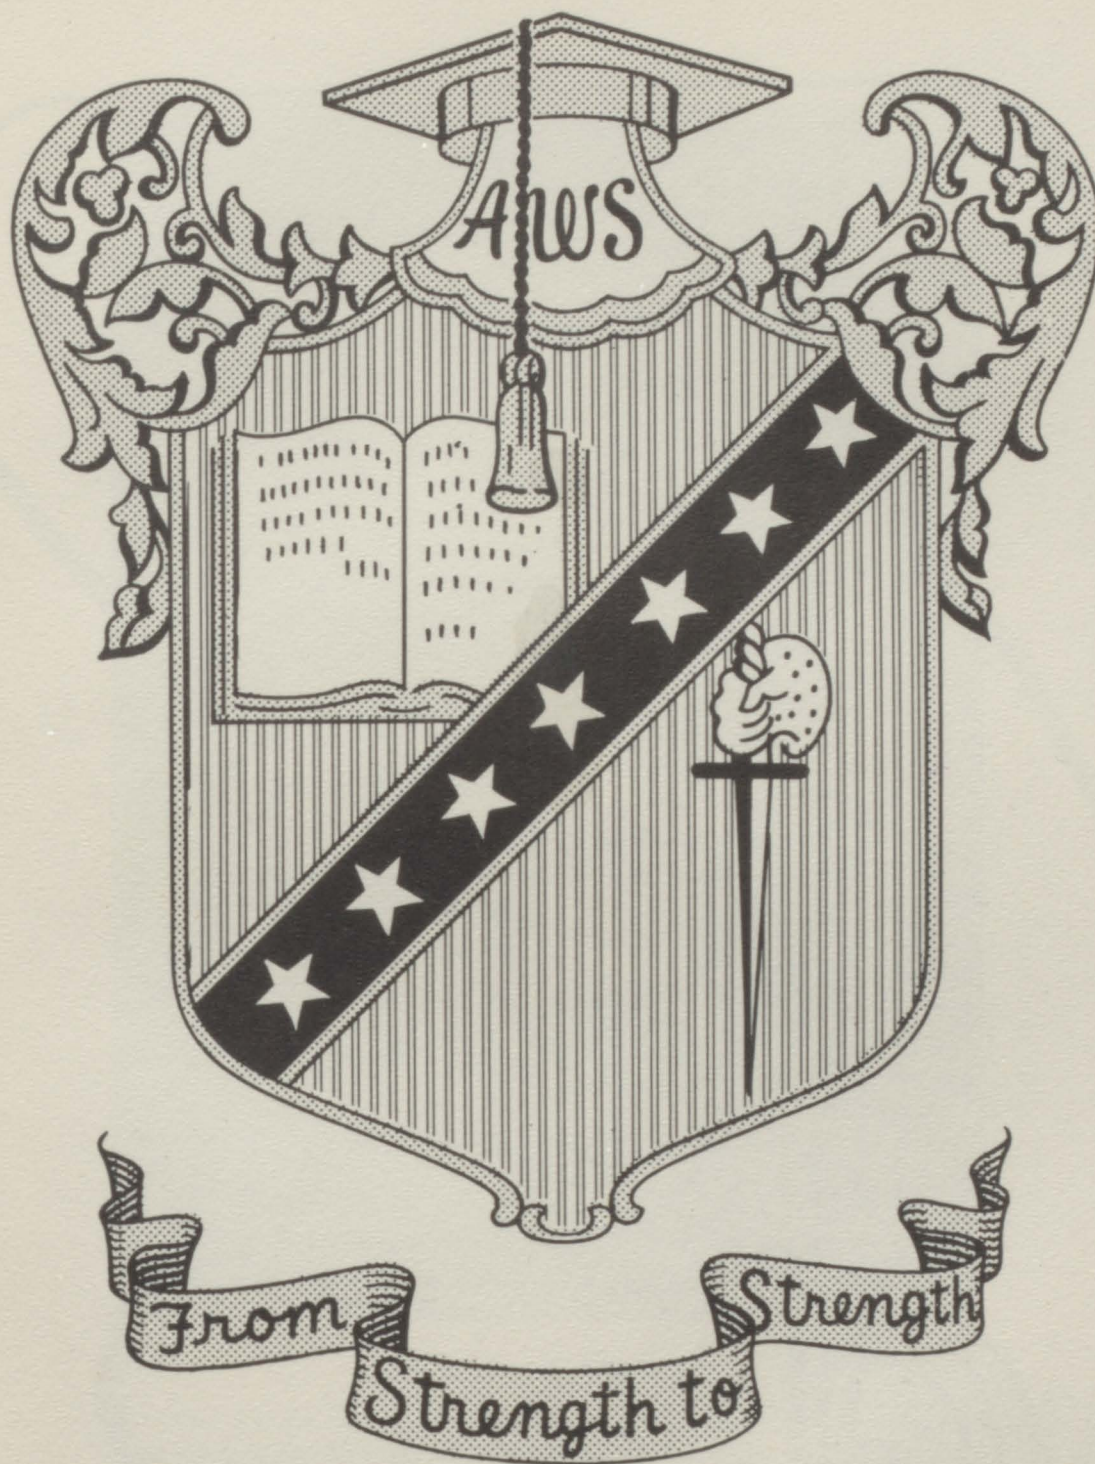

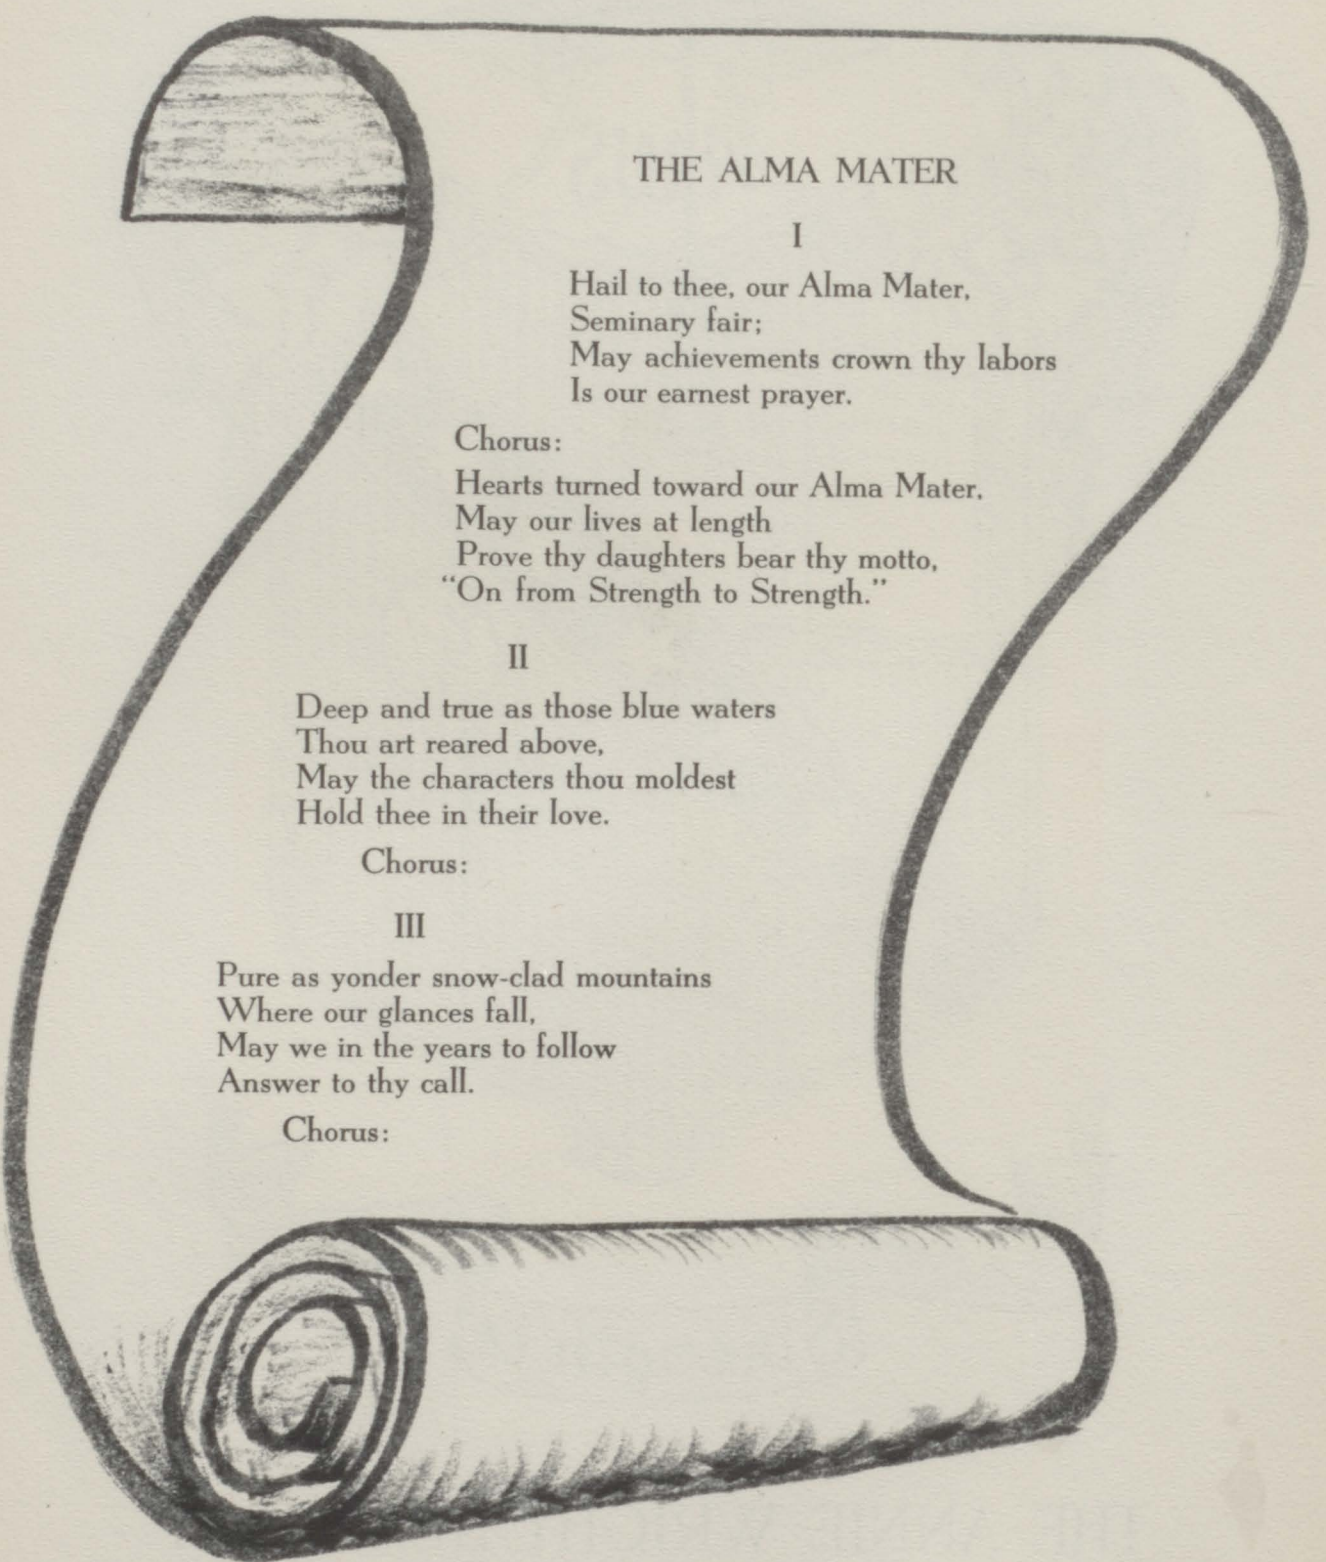

THE ANNIE WRIGHT SEMINARY
TACOMA, WASHINGTON

THE ALMA MATER

I

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Seminary fair;
May achievements crown thy labors
Is our earnest prayer.

Chorus:

Hearts turned toward our Alma Mater,
May our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto,
"On from Strength to Strength."

II

Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou art reared above,
May the characters thou moldest
Hold thee in their love.

Chorus:

III

Pure as yonder snow-clad mountains
Where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow
Answer to thy call.

Chorus:

MISS SARAH B. THOMPSON

This year for the first time in thirty years Miss Sarah B. Thompson did not return to her Seminary tasks. Her retirement has made us all more keenly aware than ever before of the brightness that her presence gave the school.

We believe we speak for all who knew her when we say that through the years she has become a part of the very heart and soul of The Annie Wright Seminary. We therefore dedicate this Shield to her in deep appreciation of her gaiety and graciousness, her never-failing warmth and generosity, and her years of loyal and devoted service.

TO

THROUGH ORDERED COMINGS AND GOINGS

THROUGH CLOISTERED LAUGHTER, WORK AND PLAY

AROUND THE BEND ON MAY DAY

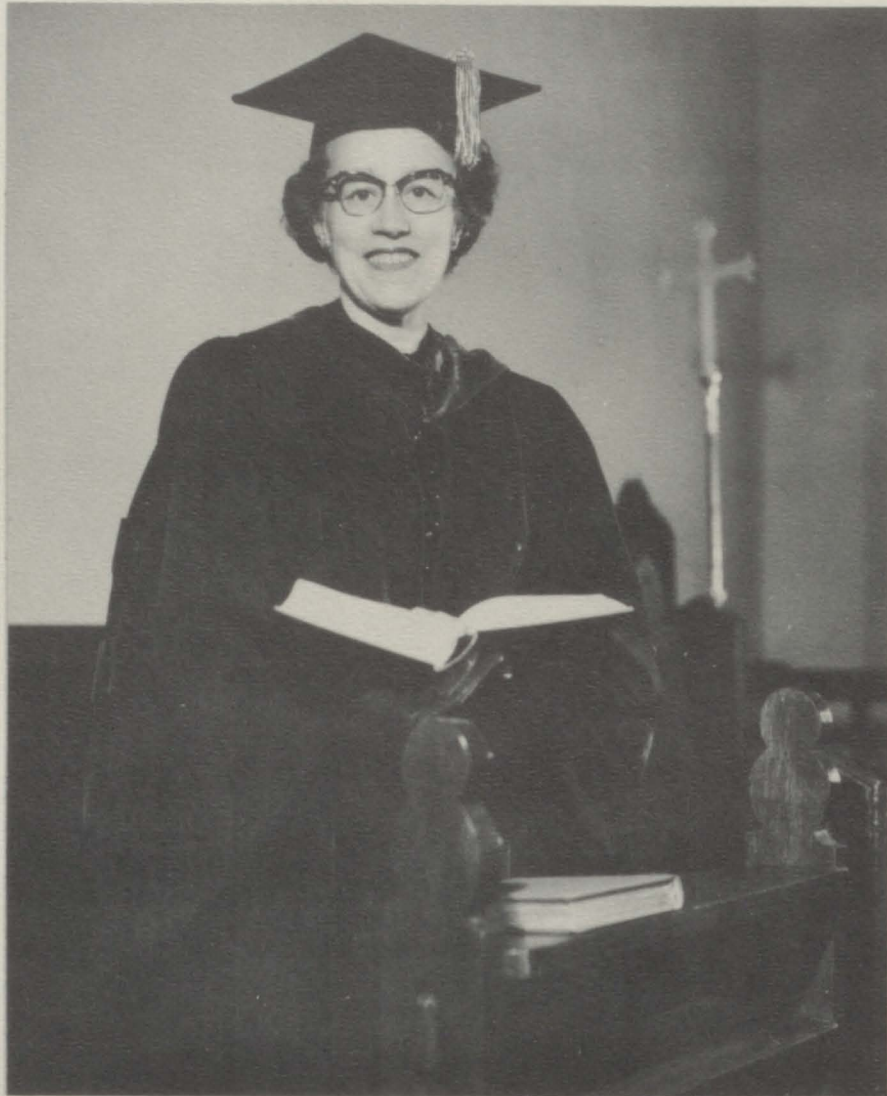

TO MINDS AT PEACE IN QUIET MEDITATION

TOWARD EXPANDING VISTAS OF BEAUTY AND TRUTH

MISS RUTH JENKINS, HEADMISTRESS

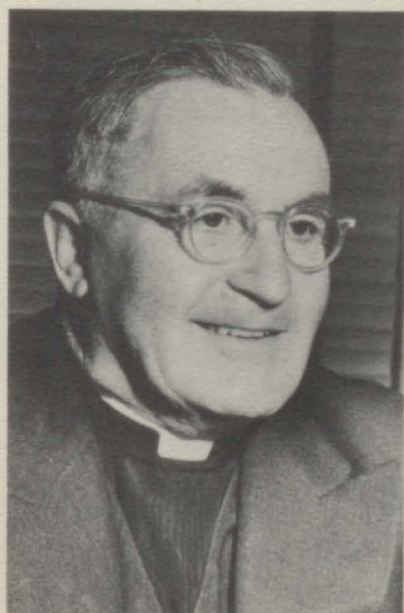

The eyes that guide us see beyond our daily needs, from ready humor to the spirit's depths. Their breadth of vision has helped us find wisdom and meaning which will not forsake us in the days to come.

SENIOR STEP SONG

We're going to make this a super year.
We've got lots of zip and zoom.
Our rule as Seniors is very near,
Stand aside and give us room.
Sweaters and switch,
The spade and all other fun.
Seniors! we're coming in on the run.
Now we have reached Senior paradise
With a new step every day.

We'll have the best Shield there's ever been
With a carnival that's swell.
Movies, we'll have like you've never seen,
And we're sure all will go well.
Walk-line and May Day, more fun for Seniors to do,

Exams, and then our Senior Week, too.
Now we have reached Senior paradise
With a new step every day.

Tree planting is a part of the Commencement ceremonies for the Class of 1954, just as it was for the above-pictured class of 1904, as it has been in the years between and will be in the years to follow. But time-honored and meaningful as this custom has become, for us this year there will be a change, for the person whose guidance in the tree planting had become as much a part of the school as the tradition itself, will not be here.

ARTHUR O. REYNOLDS
1878 - 1954

Arthur Reynolds, who for thirty years was the gardener for The Annie Wright Seminary, was also the last member of the Staff linking the Seminary of today with the old school. His death this spring deprived us of one whose many contributions to our school now become their own best tribute to his memory and lie all about us in the beauty of the grounds he planned and so devotedly labored to maintain. Though we miss him, he cannot be truly gone while the loveliness he brought about remains, and for this same reason we know his work was its own reward for him. We have been enriched not only by his example but by our daily enjoyment of what his efforts achieved.

The Seventieth Class to graduate from
The Annie Wright Seminary
has reached, as every class must, the end of its particular activities. Half in reluctance, half in pleasure we write
finis to this scroll, knowing that our
affectionate memories live not only in the record we leave behind
but in the aspirations
we take with us into the future.
